

C O N T E N T S

I. Acknowledgement	8
CHAPTER 1
Why go for Business Excellence	10
CHAPTER 2
Business Excellence Model	18
CHAPTER 3
EFQM 2010 Key Changes	30
3.1– Why changes were made
3.2– What has not changed
3.3– What has changed - Fundamental Principles of Excellence
3.4– What has changed – Criteria titles
3.5– What has changed - Weightages
3.6– What has changed - Enablers
3.7– What has changed - Results
CHAPTER 4
Awards Assessment Process	37
CHAPTER 5
Planning to Develop Submission Document	41
5.1 – Gaining leadership commitment and their responsibilities
5.2 – Developing scoping diagram
5.3 – Creating an organization for the project
5.4 – Assigning business excellence award criteria to teams
5.5 – Launching the project
5.6 – Preparing project plan
CHAPTER 6
Developing the Submission Document	54
6.1 – Making a good first impression
6.2 – Enhancing knowledge on business excellence award model

- 6.3 – Communicating key messages
- 6.4 – Gathering and sharing information
- 6.5 – Writing the submission document
- 6.6 – Writing standards
- 6.7 – Writing foreword
- 6.8 – Writing overview
- 6.9 – Generic guidelines for entire document
- 6.10 – Guidelines for writing Enabler criteria
- 6.11 – Guidelines for writing Results criteria
- 6.12 – Finalizing the draft
- 6.13 – Professional editing
- 6.14 – Designing and printing/publishing of submission document
- 6.15 – Submitting the document to Award office and issuing to staff

CHAPTER 7

Preparing for the Site Visit Assessment 77

- 7.1 – Communication
- 7.2 – Organizing mock site visit assessment
- 7.3 – Responding effectively to assessors
- 7.4 – Making evidences ready
- 7.5 – Orderliness and housekeeping
- 7.6 – Logistics arrangements
- 7.7 – After the site visit
- 7.8 – Winning the award, celebrations and feedback report

APPENDICES

- A.1 - Definitions and explanation of concepts and glossary 86
- A.2 - List of figures 92
- A.3 - References for further reading 93
- A.4 - Contact addresses of some leading award offices 94